What is the Beleggers Spaarrekening?

The Beleggers Spaarrekening is a savings account with which you can also invest. You can buy investments directly through your Beleggers Spaarrekening. Even if you sell investments, the amount is directly deposited into your Beleggers Spaarrekening. You can also make deposits and withdraw your savings at any time.

For whom is the Beleggers Spaarrekening?

The Beleggers Spaarrekening is intended for private retail customers and private pension companies.

Conditions and definitions

- a. The General Conditions of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. apply to the relationship between you and the bank. Conditions on the same subject for the Beleggers Spaarrekening take precedence over those in the General Conditions of ABN AMRO Bank N.V.
- b. References to 'customer' and 'bank statement' in the General Conditions of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. will be understood to mean the same as 'you' and 'account statement' in these Conditions.
- c. In these Conditions, references to the terms below are understood to mean:
 - ▶ contra account: a current account in euros that you hold with the bank.
 - ▶ investment account/investment deposit: the account with the bank through which the bank administers your investment products on your behalf.

Opening the Beleggers Spaarrekening

- a. You may only open a maximum of one Beleggers Spaarrekening per investment account in your own name and a maximum of one in the names of you and a joint account holder(s). This is free of charge.
- b. The bank can also set a limit to the total number of (other) savings accounts that you may hold in your name and in the name of you and a joint account holder(s).

- c. To open and use the Beleggers Spaarrekening, a contra account and an investment deposit are required.

Deposits into the Beleggers Spaarrekening

- a. You can make deposits into your Beleggers Spaarrekening at any time.
- b. You make a deposit by transferring an amount in euros to your Beleggers Spaarrekening or by selling your investments. The usual costs apply to the sale of investments.

Withdrawals from the Beleggers Spaarrekening

- a. You can make withdrawals from the Beleggers Spaarrekening at any time. This is free of charge.
- b. You can make a withdrawal by transferring an amount to your contra account or through the purchase of investments. The usual costs apply to the purchase of investments.

Interest on the Beleggers Spaarrekening

- a. The bank calculates interest over the balance on your account. The interest rate can be positive, negative or zero.
- b. The bank can determine which interest rate applies to a certain account balance. In this way, balance classes are created. The interest rates and the balance classes are variable. The bank may change these at any time.
- c. A balance class can also apply to the combined balances on the current and/or savings accounts in your name and in the name of you and a joint account holder(s). This is referred to as the total balance. The balance that you hold with a joint account holder(s), counts equally for each joint account holder in the calculation of their total balance.
- d. Under specific circumstances, such as developments in the money and capital markets, the bank can charge a negative interest rate on one or more balance classes.
- e. The bank calculates interest over the days that your balance was held in the savings account.
- f. In the event that the interest rate is negative, the balance on your account may decrease as a result of deducting negative interest. Under such circumstances, you must take care to maintain a sufficient balance. If, as a result of this deduction, you end up overdrawn on your savings account without authorisation, you must immediately supplement this and you will pay debit interest.

- g. Your interest will be booked onto or deducted from your Beleggers Spaarrekening on 31 December, 31 March, 30 June and 30 September. The interest will be visible on your account after two working days.
- h. In the event of a negative interest rate, the bank can debit the total interest due from one of your current or savings accounts. The bank can debit negative interest per month or per quarter.

Account statements

If you use Internet Banking or Mobile Banking, you can always look at the current overview of your transactions. Electronic account statements are available through Internet Banking. If you do not have Internet Banking, you will receive account statements on paper.

Closing the Beleggers Spaarrekening

- a. You can close your Beleggers Spaarrekening at any time. This is free of charge.
- b. The bank will transfer any amounts remaining on your Beleggers Spaarrekening to your contra account. If there is a negative balance, this must be supplemented so that the balance is zero or positive before the account can be closed.
- c. The bank will book the interest onto or deduct it from the contra account in the following month or at the latest in the first month of the following quarter.
- d. Once your Beleggers Spaarrekening has been closed, the bank can no longer execute any instructions relating to this savings account.

- e. If amounts cannot be transferred to the contra account, the bank will hold your savings on one of its own accounts. You receive no interest on these savings and the bank can charge negative interest if this applies.
- f. The bank may close your Beleggers Spaarrekening if no amounts are held on the savings account for a period of 12 months or if you contravene these Conditions or the General Conditions of ABN AMRO Bank N.V.
